Joint-Lecture of UT-VJU

"Urban Studies in the Post-Pandemic Era"

January 4, 2022

International Institute for Next Urban Planning, Design and Management, The University of Tokyo Vietnam-Japan University

[Aims and Scope]

- The lecture is held as a part of activities by International Institute for Next Urban Planning, Design and Management at UT, which was established in April 2021 (http://iinu.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp) at UTokyo, in conjunction with Vietnam-Japan University.
- This is an introductory lecture about possible future cities, especially after the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The lecture introduces and discusses about how and what cities would change after the pandemic, mainly in terms of:
 - 1. Climate Change and Natural Disaster,
 - 2. Economics of Urban Agglomeration and Remotization, and
 - 3. Possible Future Urban Policies.

[Participants]

- Students of UT (mainly from Civil, Architecture and Urban Dept.)
- Students of VJU (Vietnam-Japan University, mainly from MIE, MCC, MEE and MPP)

[Time for the Class]

- Total 7 lectures (online).
- 18:45-20:30 in Japan Standard Time (16:45-18:30 in Vietnam Standard Time)

[Evaluation]

• Group presentation results and individual report assignment for each part.
